HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 652
By Davidson

A RESOLUTION to designate the week of April 5-11, 1998 as
"Appreciation Week for Graduate and Professional Students".

WHEREAS, the state of Tennessee has thousands of graduate and professional students in both public and private institutions, these students are the state's future teachers, doctors, engineers and business leaders; and

WHEREAS, graduate and professional students in the United States, as well as Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia and China, will be specially honored by graduate leaders, their faculty, and university administrators during the week of April 5-11, 1998; and

WHEREAS, graduate and professional students teach an increasing number of undergraduate classes, thereby making an enormous contribution to the academic environment of their respective institutions and enhancing the educational experience of all students; and

WHEREAS, graduate and professional students also perform important research that benefits the state of Tennessee, the United States and the world; and

WHEREAS, these students present this important research at national and international conferences, thus enhancing the reputation of Tennessee's universities; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and commend the essential role played by our graduate and professional students; now, therefore,
